

Organizational structure:	Rockwool International A/S has worldwide branches for production, marketing and sales activities for the building trade, in particular in the field of thermal, acoustics and fire-resistant insulation products. Grodan B.V. is an independent but wholly-owned subsidiary of Rockwool International A/S, which specialises in substrates on the basis of stone wool for the professional horticultural sector. Other business areas are Rockwool Technical Insulation [®] (technical and industrial insulation products), Rockwool Marine and Offshore [®] (maritime insulation products), Rockwool Rockfon [®] (aesthetic and acoustic ceiling products) Rockwool Rockpanel [®] (aesthetic and durable façade boards), Lapinus Fibres [®] (high quality fibres for technical applications) and Rockdelta [®] (products sound and vibrations insulation).
Head offices:	Rockwool International A/S in Hedehusene (Denmark) Grodan B.V. in Roermond (Netherlands)
Financial data:	In FY 2008, Rockwool International A/S achieved a turnover in net sales of 1.8 billion Euros. Rockwool International A/S is quoted on the Copenhagen stock exchange.
Management:	Chair Rockwool Board: Tom Kähler. President Rockwool Group: Eelco van Heel, Managing Director Grodan Group: Maurice Husson
Markets:	Rockwool is a global company, which serves several different markets, mainly in the construction industry. Grodan is active in over 60 countries throughout Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, North and Central America. Grodan focuses on the professional horticultural sector, including segments such as the cultivation of vegetables and flowers and plant propagation. Grodan has offices in the Netherlands, Canada and Poland. Furthermore, Grodan has an extensive network of agents and dealers.
Factories:	Rockwool has factories in Europe, North America and Asia. The production of Grodan products takes place in the Netherlands (the world's largest stone wool factory), Denmark and Poland.
Employees:	Rockwool employs over 8,500 people worldwide.
Certification:	Grodan has been awarded several certificates, such as the European Ecolabel (Grodan is the first producer of substrate to be given this label), the KIWA Keurmerk (Dutch quality standard for products), ISO 9001 (international standard for the quality management of businesses), ISO 14001 (the production process of Grodan products meet the requirements of the international standard regarding environmental aspects).
Membership:	GLOBALGAP (Associated Member), IGPA (International Growing Media Producers Association), CAS (Chambre Syndicale des Fabricants d'Amendements Organiques, de Supports de Culture et de leurs Dérivés).